sweet secret
Original illustration book by RUNOV

Hello, this is Fukahire.

This time I kind of just wanted to make a yuri book full of girls flirting with each other,
but I didn't have time and it ended up super short...

I came up with names and backstories for the girls,
so hopefully I can draw them again some other time.

The girl with long black hair is Touko-chan
and the short haired girl is Michika-chan.
Treat them well!

I recently did the main character design for Monster Monpiece. It should be released in January, so please check it out if you're interested.

Hopefully we'll meet again in the summer.
Thank you for your support.
